

Robert M. MacLeod, PhD
Emeritus Member
AACR Member Since 1965

The AACR played an important role in providing a premiere forum for many of us to present our scientific findings to our colleagues, both verbally and in written form. My research was funded by grants from the USPHS National Cancer Institute for 29 consecutive years. Publication of this research in AACR sponsored journals aided me greatly.